Please pray for the young people of this church and the wider circuit, and their leaders, as they are attending 3Generate, the Methodist Youth Assembly at the NEC in Birmingham this weekend. Prayers for safe travel but also for open minds and hearts to engage with what's on offer.'

A Prayer vigil for peace in Isreal/ Palestine will take place in the Trinity Chapel on Monday 7th October from 12 – 12.30pm, to lament all who have lost their lives, and will include a 20 minute silence. This is an opportunity to reflect, light a candle, and pray quietly with others for peace. All are welcome.

Also for the anniversary of October 7th, the Salisbury Christian Aid Committee is screening the acclaimed film The Tinderbox on Monday October 7th at the URC Church in Fisherton St, 6.30 for 7.00 pm. All welcome.

Pigs for Palestine! Paul Butler will be selling ornamental pigs of all shapes and sizes in the hall during coffee, and offering you a chance to participate in a pig-related quiz. This has been made possible because Jackie Weddell has kindly donated her collection of pigs to Christian Aid. It's a light-hearted response to the continuing desperate situation in Gaza, and to Christian Aid's appeal for funds to support the relief work done by their partner organisations there. '

The ukulele/organ concert for Medical Aid for Palestinians last Saturday has raised to date a total of £850. The Just Giving page is still open to anyone who was not present but who would still like to give to this pressing need; just go to: https://www.justgiving.com/page/gregory-cook-1727005297841?utm_term=qyr323DrM

From the Circuit Justice and Peace Group We would love to welcome new members of our group, which next meets on Wednesday 9th October at Bemerton Methodist Church, where Cecil King kindly hosts us with provision of drinks. The meeting itself will begin at 1pm but some of us will be arriving from 12.30 with our packed lunches and eat them together before the business starts. If there is someone who wants to join this group but cannot manage these times, we can move to another time. We would not want to exclude anyone. Please contact Rosemary on rosemary.fletcher@methodist.org.uk

MWiB Celebration Day on Saturday 12th October at Verwood Methodist Church !0am for 10.30 to 3.30pm. The theme is 'Beauty for Brokenness' with Gabby North from The Leprosy Mission as the speaker telling us more about our new Partnership with Nepal where our money will be used to train women who live in the communities to look out for the early signs of the disease and support these women and girls to get treatment. The day will include Bible Study, Prayer, Creativity, Drama and news updates. Drinks provided, bring your own lunch. Further information or to arrange transport talk to Liz Chick.
