Please pray for the young people of this church and the wider circuit, and their leaders, as they prepare to attend 3Generate, the Methodist Youth Assembly at the NEC in Birmingham next weekend. Prayers for safe travel but also for open minds and hearts to engage with what's on offer.'

A Prayer vigil for peace in Isreal/ Palestine will take place in the Trinity Chapel on Monday 7th October from 12 – 12.30pm, to lament all who have lost their lives, and will include a 20 minute silence. This is an opportunity to reflect, light a candle, and pray quietly with others for peace. All are welcome.

Also for the anniversary of October 7th, the Salisbury Christian Aid Committee is screening the acclaimed film The Tinderbox on Monday October 7th at the URC Church in Fisherton St, 6.30 for 7.00 pm. All welcome.

‘Super soupers’ from the SMC community deliver around four litres of vegetable soup every Tuesday evening from the beginning of October until the end of March. The soup is shared amongst people in Salisbury needing the warmth and nutrition. There is a great band of loyal soup makers but if you'd like to be a part of the group, you'd be very welcome. My name is Susan Bates: let me know and I'll add you to the rota. Many thanks. My email address is: pands.bates@gmail.com

From the Circuit Justice and Peace Group We would love to welcome new members of our group, which next meets on Wednesday 9th October at Bemerton Methodist Church, where Cecil King kindly hosts us with provision of drinks. The meeting itself will begin at 1pm but some of us will be arriving from 12.30 with our packed lunches and eat them together before the business starts. If there is someone who wants to join this group but cannot manage these times, we can move to another time. We would not want to exclude anyone. Please contact Rosemary on rosemary.fletcher@methodist.org.uk

Margaret Rutt has two spare copies of the new Methodist Prayer Handbook, Praise and Protest at £4.50 each. Please contact her if you would like a copy at marutt@btinternet.com

MWiB Celebration Day on Saturday 12th October at Verwood Methodist Church !0am for 10.30 to 3.30pm. The theme is ‘Beauty for Brokenness’ with Gabby North from The Leprosy Mission as the speaker telling us more about our new Partnership with Nepal where our money will be used to train women who live in the communities to look out for the early signs of the disease and support these women and girls to get treatment. The day will include Bible Study. Prayer, Creativity, Drama and news updates. Drinks provided, bring your own lunch. Further information or to arrange transport talk to Liz Chick.
