The flowers in church today are given by Jo Smith in memory of Mike who died four years ago.

With sadness we share the news that, following a deterioration over the last 6 weeks or so, Terry Reynolds passed away peacefully in hospital on Saturday afternoon. He was surrounded by love - Dawn and his daughter and granddaughter were with him. We give thanks that he is now at peace and we hold Dawn and all his family in our thoughts and prayers.

The Listening Place Open Evening will be held in the church on Tuesday, 23rd September, 6.45 for 7pm. The speaker is Alex Ewing, Director of the Bridge project talking about the Bridge project 'Bridging The Gap for Young People'. More information from Jill Lakeman.

At the Harvest Festival service on Sunday 21st September we will again be collecting for the Salisbury Food Bank. Please see the list in the September Newsletter and on the posters for the items they are short of. But, please ensure they are within the Best Before date.

Donations to the church can be made using the Card paying machines in the Welcome Area and on the way into the hall, using cash in the collection box on Sundays or online through the SMC website. Please talk to Sue Gilbert if you are able to Gift Aid your donations

Prayer Tree You are welcome to use a leaf to add a prayer to the Tree in the Welcome Area, these will be brought to the communion table each Sunday, and, at some point in the service, dedicated as a prayer is said over them.

This year's Greenbelt Christian Festival will be held from 21st to 25th August in fields in Boughton House near Kettering. Three members of SMC will be camping there - Holly Adams will be a host in the Methodist Hope and Anchor tent and James Rowley and Rosemary Fletcher will be on the Fund for Human Need Tent but will have time to attend other events and hopefully meet up with Holly.

A reminder that every Saturday at 5pm there is a silent vigil for the situation in Gaza – outside the Library.
